The participation rules are defined by this notice.

§1º. The VII Seven International Multidisciplinary Congress aims to promote and encourage academic production and critical analysis of topics related to the Multidisciplinary field. Furthermore, it seeks to disseminate good practices and quality works, fostering scientific discussion and providing opportunities for interaction between the academic community and business and government sectors related to the Multidisciplinary theme.

§ 2º. This event will be valid nationwide and internationally, and can be attended by undergraduate students, professors, researchers, academic community members, entrepreneurs, consultants, professionals, and others interested in topics related to the field of Health.

§3º. The examining committee of the VII Seven International Multidisciplinary Congress will be composed of professionals from the field(s), freely appointed by the event's organizing committee.

§4º. The evaluators, members of the examining committee, may not have any family relationship up to the second degree, either by blood, adoption, or affinity, with the authors being evaluated by them, prioritizing impartiality in their decisions.

PARTICIPANTS

Art. 2º. The congress is open to academics enrolled at any level of undergraduate, graduate, master's, or doctoral studies, as well as those who have completed their course starting from the first year or first semester of any course at an institution, provided they are regularly enrolled or graduated and register for the VII Seven International Multidisciplinary Congress.

PARTICIPATION REQUIREMENTS

Art. 3º. The submission must be made by at least 1 (one) of the authors to submit the paper containing the names of the other co-authors, allowing co-authorship of up to 10 (ten) participants, as long as the members meet the requirements of Art. 2º of this notice.

§1º. The theme will be freely chosen by the participants, provided it is based on the following axes:

- All academic axes.

§2º. The article will be disqualified if it does not reference the research results or fails to provide the data of the research(es) on which the participant based their work, as well as if the article is submitted after the deadline established in this notice.

§3º. The article will be disqualified if it contains authorship issues or any other illegality.

SUBMISSION

Art. 3º. Articles must be submitted by 11:59 PM on March 10, 2025.

Art. 4º. All submissions are free of charge, as they will first be submitted for evaluation, with the formal acceptance letter being sent only after approval, in order to start the payment process.

§ 1º. Corrections are done continuously, as is the submission process. After the review, we will contact the participant via email at congresso@sevenevents.com.br or sevenpublicacoes@hotmail.com.

§ 2º To participate as an attendee, simply fill out the form on the website, and we will confirm the registration by email.

§ 3º The registration fee for attendees is R$ 30.00 (thirty reais).

§ 4º To participate with a paper submission and possible presentation, the participation fee will be R$ 167.00 (one hundred sixty-seven reais) per paper upon formal acceptance via email.

The presentation submission must include the title of the paper and the email of the corresponding author.

Art. 11°. Live - The presentation will take place on the day of the event via Google Meet, and the presenter must be online at the time of their presentation. To check the best available time, please wait for the emails with the scheduling guidelines.

Art. 12° Publication only - In this format, no presentation is required; simply submit the written paper according to the congress model, and we will follow the same process as for the other papers.

FINAL PROVISIONS

Art. 13°. Participation in this event does not grant participants any rights or advantages other than those expressly outlined in this regulation.

Art. 14°. Participants will receive certificates of participation (attendees) and/or article presentation. The congress proceedings will be published and will receive CrossRef/DOI registration and certification of oral scientific presentation at the congress.

Art. 15°. Participants declare and tacitly accept that they are the authors or co-authors of the works and are responsible for them, exempting Seven Publicações LTDA, its partners, and organizers from any civil, criminal, authorship, or other liability that may arise due to irregularities caused by the participants.

Art. 16°. Participants agree to all the rules set forth in this regulation and authorize the use of their name and image in any communication medium or tool for the purpose of promoting this event.

Art. 17°. This event, as well as its regulation, may be modified, suspended, or canceled with prior notice, due to force majeure or any other unforeseen factor outside the control of Seven Publicações LTDA that compromises the event's regular progress, preventing or substantially changing its original conduct.

Art. 18°. Any issues not addressed in this notice will be decided by the event's organizing committee. Furthermore, the decisions will be final, irrevocable, and unappealable. Simply participating in this event implies total knowledge and unrestricted acceptance of this regulation.
